

A simple network setup: A simple network setup is a basic way to connect devices so they can share the internet and communicate with each other. It usually includes:

- Devices – Computers, phones, or printers.
- Router/Modem – Connects everything to the internet.
- Cables or Wi-Fi – Used to link devices together.

Example: A home Wi-Fi network where your phone, laptop, and smart TV all connect to the same router.